SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

Scan here for more information on the School of Business

UA LITTLE ROCK

COLLEGE OF HUMANITIES,
ARTS, SOCIAL SCIENCES,
AND EDUCATION

General Information

UA Little Rock School of Business

Affordable and flexible degree program for your future success.

Adaptive Education:

- Stay ahead in a dynamic business landscape

Flexible Learning:

- On-campus or online

Real-World Experience:

- Career-defining internship opportunities
- ASBTDC partnership

Social Mobility:

- Enhance living standards post-graduation

Admission Requirements:

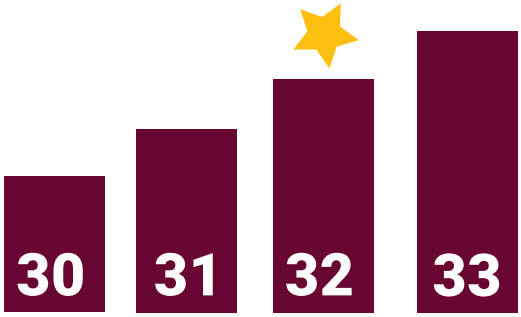
- High school students: High school diploma, GED or homeschool with 2.0 GPA
- Transfer students: Cumulative GPA of at least 2.0 on all previous regionally accredited college coursework, or an AA/AS/AAS from your last previously-attended, regionally accredited institution

Scan here for more information on School of Business

We are Rising Stars!

2023 US Rank #32

Online Business Program



AACSB ACCREDITED

BEST COLLEGES U.S.News & WORLD REPORT BUSINESS PROGRAMS 2024

Per Semester Tuition
$3,500

Annual Scholarships
$200,000

Business Scholarships:

In November, current and future students may apply for UA Little Rock School of Business scholarships that will be awarded in the following summer, fall, and/or spring terms.

Here are scholarships you can apply for:

- General scholarships for School of Business students
- Scholarships for Department of Accounting, Economics, and Finance students
- Scholarships for Department of Management, Marketing, and Technology Students

Scan here for more information on scholarships

Accounting

Empower Your Future Through Accounting

An accounting degree lays a robust foundation in financial systems, empowering students to decode data, make informed decisions, and significantly impact the global business arena.

Dynamic Curriculum:

- Specialized courses tailored to industry demands

Expert Faculty:

- Learn from faculty who are all CPAs

Excellence and Engagement:

- You can have a global impact
- You'll work with emerging technologies

Industry Connections:

- Opportunities for internships with leading companies

Student Organizations:

- Beta Alpha Psi
- Accounting Society

Career Opportunities:

- Accounting is a stepping stone to other career opportunities
- Accounting provides a chance to understand all parts of a business

Scan for more information on Accounting

Business Analytics

A business analytics degree equips students with cutting-edge tools and expertise to extract data-driven insights, driving strategic decisions and sparking innovation across various industries.

A future with Practical Data Analytics Skills:

- Project-based learning and practical data analytics and technology skills

Flexible Delivery:

- Online or in person

Versatile and Practical Skills:

- Data analytics skills useful many industries

Career Growth:

- Transfer employment prospects projected to grow 35% from 2022 to 2032 (US BLS)

Excellence and Engagement:

- Faculty with industry experience
- Hands-on learning opportunities
- Engagement through active student organization

Career Opportunities:

- Annual salaries range from $58,000 to $174,000 (US BLS)
- Develop skills to help businesses make data-driven decisions

Scan here for more information on Business Analytics

Business Information Systems

A business information systems degree merges technology with business acumen, preparing students to design, implement, and manage systems that streamline organizational processes and enhance decision-making.

Technical Mastery:

- Expertise in database systems, programming, systems design, and analysis

Systems Expertise:

- Expertise in SQL, object oriented programming, project management, database systems, and information security

Excellence and Engagement:

- Seasoned and experienced faculty
- Hands-on learning opportunities
- Opportunities to meet and interact with IT professionals
- Alumni engagement after graduation

Professional Edge:

- About 377,500 jobs openings projected each year from 2022 to 2032 (US BLS)

Career Opportunities:

- Variety of careers including: database administrators, software developers, information security analyst, system support analyst, web Developer

Career Opportunities:

- Annual salaries range from $59,000 to $136,000 (US BLS)
- Job growth opportunities across all industries
- Acquire skills to help organization use technology efficiently

Scan here for more information on Business Information Systems

Economics

An economics degree offers a deep dive into resource allocation, market analysis, and decision-making, enabling students to influence policy, business strategies, and global economic trends.

Analytical Skills:

- Sharpen logic and statistical analysis abilities

Experiential Learning:

- Real policy relevant research project with local non-profit organizations

Law School Edge:

- Excel in LSAT scores and law school readiness

Flexible Double Major:

- Easily pairs with finance,politics, math, and real estate accounting society

Excellence and Engagement:

- Research partnership with local
- businesses/nonprofits Conduct research independently or with professors

Career Opportunities:

- Industry, finance, government, public policy, data science, machine learning, law, graduate study

Scan here for more information on Economics

Finance

A finance degree provides the analytical prowess and financial acumen necessary to navigate complex markets, manage investments, and drive strategic decisions in a dynamic global economy.

Choose your Path:

- General/Corporate Finance
- Real Estate Finance
- Financial Services

Program Flexibility:

- The Finance BBA can be completed on campus or fully online information security

Excellence and Engagement:

- Courses with access to industry recognized certifications
- Strong student-led organizations for building connections

Career Ready Skills:

- Financial modeling and analytics
- Real estate development and investing
- CFA level I preparation

Experiential Learning:

- Participate in national competitions, pitch your equity valuations to practitioners, and more

Career Opportunities:

- A variety of careers including: Commercial banking, investment banking, development and investing, financial planning and wealth management, insurance, real estate appraisal

Scan here for more information on Finance

Management

A management degree hones leadership skills and strategic thinking, equipping students to efficiently coordinate resources, inspire teams, and drive organizational success in diverse business settings.

Specialization Areas in Management:

- Innovation and Entrepreneurship
- General Management
- Human Resource Management
- International Business

Scan here for more information on Management

Core Benefits:

- Master practical decision-making and leadership skills

Real-World Insights:

- Gain hands-on experience through internships and collaborative projects

Networking Opportunities:

- Network with corporate executives to glean industry insights and career advice

Flexible Learning:

- Take advantage of our summer semester offerings to fast-track your education

Excellence and Engagement:

- Certificates: management, Innovation and entrepreneurship
- Society for human resource management student organization

Career Opportunities:

- Multiple career paths including: entrepreneur, consultant, human resources manager, general manager, project manager

Marketing

A marketing degree trains students to decode consumer behavior, craft innovative strategies, and deliver compelling messages, empowering them to create impactful campaigns and propel business growth in competitive markets.

Flexibility in Focus:

- Choose an Emphasis: digital marketing or professional sales

Exciting Sales Dynamics:

- Master negotiation, relationship building, and strategic selling.

AI-Powered Marketing:

- Discover how to amplify marketing campaigns' impact and efficiency with AI-driven innovations

Experiential Learning:

- Participate in practical projects and real-world case studies.

Excellence and Engagement:

- Professional Sales certificate
- Competition-focused marketing and sales club

Career Opportunities:

- Breadth of options including Product manager, Sales manager, Digital marketing manager, Marketing research analyst

Scan here for more information on Marketing

Minors and Certificates Proficiency

The School of Business offers minors which are available to any UA Little Rock student and serve as an excellent complement to many majors.

- Accounting
- Business Information Systems
- Economics
- General Finance
- Human Resource Management
- Innovation and Entrepreneurship
- Management
- Professional Selling
- Real Estate
- International Business

Certificate of Proficiency:

- Add value with extra certification along with your degree work

Business Analytics Certificate:

- Master analytical techniques for informed decision-making

Management Certificate:

- Strengthen managerial abilities and leadership potential

Innovation and Entrepreneurship Certificate:

- Develop skills for thriving in dynamic business environments

Professional Sales Certificate:

- Elevate sales acumen with focused training and experiential learning

Coursera Academy Certification:

- Improve career readiness with the Coursera Academy certification

coursera

Center for Student and Career Services

Career Catalyst Program:

Career Catalyst provides students the opportunity to become career ready graduates

Networking:

- On campus and virtual events
- Career fairs
- Internship fairs
- Business etiquette luncheons

Academic Advising:

- Degree Planning
- Class Schedule

Professional Development:

- Resume writing
- Personal branding
- Interview skills workshops
- Professional dress workshops
- Negotiate your salary workshops
- Communicating with confidence and how to complete an on-line employment application

Experiential Learning:

- Participate in practical projects and real-world case studies

Scan here to know more about our Extended Education

Trojan Career Closet:

Visit the Trojan Career Closet at the Reynolds Business Building for free professional attire, perfect for university interviews and events gear up for success!